

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Beyond Oil?

The leading industry seminar of 2003 will examine practical ways for industry, government and community to grow beyond the world shortfall in oil production predicted to start within a decade.

Who should attend?

- Industry
- Government
- Academic
- Agriculture
- Economists
- Community

Meet the people who are making a difference

SPEAKERS

Industry

David Robb Managing Director Wesfarmers Energy Pty Ltd
Greg Bourne Regional President BP
Barry Jones Executive Officer Australian Petroleum Production and Exploration Ltd
Jon Ranney ACIL Tasman Consulting

Government

Alannah MacTiernan Minister for Planning and Infrastructure
Greg Martin Director General Department for Planning and Infrastructure

Academic

Jeff Kenworthy Assoc Professor Sustainable Settlements, Murdoch University
Ross Kingwell Senior Lecturer Agricultural and Resource Economics University of WA

Community

Richard Denniss the Australia Institute
David Moir Chief Engineer RAC (WA)
Bruce Robinson Sustainable Transport Coalition

To receive advance information about this conference plus conference papers and related material email your details to irina.cattalini@conservationwa.asn.au with "Beyond Oil subscribe" in the header. Privacy: Your details will not be shared beyond the conference organisers.

DETAILS

Make a note in your diary

Friday 21st February 2003, 9am to 4pm

Alexander Library Conference Room

Perth Cultural Centre

INFORMATION phone Irina on 9420 7268 or email irina.cattalini@conservationwa.asn.au

Jointly organised by the Australian Institute of Agricultural Science and Technology (WA Branch) and the Sustainable Transport Coalition

